THE ABC OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

Hampshire Cultural Trust | December 2018

Join these loveable animals as they play musical instruments in the perfect first alphabet book.

Jane Austen, the world famous author, spent most of her life in Hampshire. Its houses, countryside and people inspired her writing. The book design draws on the repeating pattern of oak leaves from a Pelisse Coat in the care of Hampshire Cultural Trust which is thought to have belonged to Jane Austen.

ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR

Ailie Busby studied Graphic Design, and then specialised in Illustration at Cambridge School of Art. Many things influence her work: nature and animals are a constant inspiration, plus 1950's and 60's children's books, patterns and colour.

MAX MEETS A MONSTER

Tracey Hawkins | January 2019

Max is looking forward to his first ever sleepover at Grandpa's house. Max snuggles into his sleeping bag with his Ted and his torch but is woken up by a terrible noise. As he hunts around the house for the monster he sees all sorts of strange shapes until finally he comes face to face with the monster; his snoring Grandpa.

A light-hearted story which emphasises the great relationships children can have with their grandparents.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Tracey Hawkins initially wanted to be a teacher and studied Advanced Education. Tracey then launched into a career in the police force, where she picked up lots of hints for her mysteries and scary stories.

After the birth of her third child she hung up her gun holster for a nappy bag and became a full-time mother; a job she loved best of all.

ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR

Chantal was born in Paris where she studied at The School of Applied Arts and commenced her career as a graphic designer and illustrator in the advertising and publishing world.

Chantal also works for some of the world's most renowned publishers including Penguin, Allen and Unwin, University of Queensland Press and Macmillan.

KEEPER OF THE CRYSTALS: EVE AND THE KRAKEN HUNT

JESS BLACK | DECEMBER 2018

During a walk to the headland near Marigold Beach, Eve introduces Oscar to her new friend, an endangered octopus she has been visiting for the last three days. But soon after, Eve and Oscar are transported to another world.

Eve finds herself swaying to the rhythm of the ocean as she stands on the deck of an old wooden ship.

Can she save the kraken from being hunted by sailors?

KEEPER OF THE CRYSTALS SERIES

Keeper of the Crystals is an adventure fantasy series full of secrets and mystery. Eve and Oscar, two unlikely friends, accidentally tap into the power of crystals. They are thrust into different and dangerous worlds where unicorns, tigers, dragons and panthers communicate with people and where native communities and their way of life are under threat.

What are the secrets of the Crystal Keeper and why does Eve have these powers?

Supported by a dedicated website which features activities and sample chapters: keeperofthecrystals.com.au

SUMMARY

Growing up in East Germany in the 1960's, football mad Karl wants nothing more than to play for his hometown club. However, when this dream finally comes true, he soon finds out that playing for the mighty Dynamo Berlin comes at a cost. Karl realises that the team are run by the dreaded Stasi Police and he's required to be more than just a football player. When he refuses to become an informant, he finds himself falling foul of powerful men who always get what they want. Of course, as he falls out of love with football, he could always simply up and leave. Couldn't he? It's not to be – players don't leave Dynamo Berlin until the Stasi decide.

KEY SALES POINTS

- Intelligent football novel for soccer fans ready to move on to a more sophisticated read.
- A surprising story that needed to be told. Dynamo Berlin was actually run by the Stasi! (East German secret police)
- Gripping historical thriller from author of The Wartime Winger (ISBN: 978-1-906132-15-6)

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Joseph Curry is a primary school teacher based in Bournemouth. He has a passion for sport and history.

EXTRACT

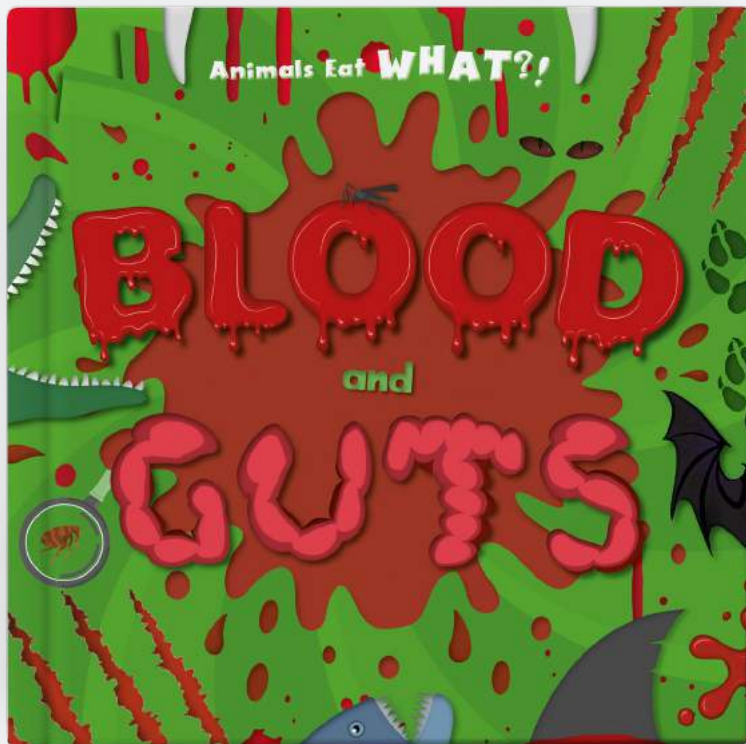

"No matter how bad the week had been, Saturday's match was always an escape from the boredom of everyday life. Only now I'm not free any more. I'm as far from being free as you could possibly imagine..."

From puke and poo to blood and guts, animals will eat almost anything. Learn all about rubbish-raiding racoons and dung-dining dogs as you tuck into these gruesome books. This series takes a look at the gourmet meals of the animal kingdom where table manners don't exist and you won't be asking for desert! Doggie bag anyone?

- A mix of weird and wonderful vectors and full-colour photographs makes this series as visually engaging as it is entertaining
- High interest topics perfect for reluctant readers
- Provides young readers with easily memorisable facts that they can share with friends and family
- Teaches the biological processes of living things in a funny yet factual written style
