

Testimonials

Physical Sciences

Physics,
Materials Science,
Astronomy,
Chemistry,
Earth Science

It is a pleasure for Materials Science-Poland to collaborate with Sciendo. They have helped us to achieve our goals of improving the quality of our journal and meeting international standards. Services provided by Sciendo have resulted in our journal's entrance into many abstract databases and an increase in visibility on a global scale.

Prof. Zbigniew Gronostajski
Editor-in-Chief, Materials Science-Poland

*We convincingly recommend the cooperation with Sciendo who meets all international standards. In the case of Discussiones Mathematicae Graph Theory the result of this collaboration is the visibility of our journal in many abstract databases (including Web of Science).*

Prof. Mieczysław Borowiecki
Editor-in-Chief, Discussiones Mathematicae Graph Theory

Mathematics,
Statistics,
Logic,
Systems Science

Engineering
Engineering,
Industry,
Transportation,
Computer Science

Sciendo delivers what it has committed to. Our journal is applied to abstracting and indexing databases, DOIs are registered for each article, full articles are sent to full-text repositories and distributors, readers enjoy sophisticated e-publishing technology. We are glad to see growing interest of authors and readers in our quarterly.

Prof. Jozef Korbicz

Editor-in-Chief, International Journal of Applied Mathematics and Computer Science

We collaborated with Sciendo for the first time and we would be happy to collaborate more in the future. The book publishing procedure with the international publishing house is quite a complex, time consuming and not an easy task, but, thanks to Sciendo team, it went smoothly and we are satisfied by the final result.

Prof. Kestutis Zaleckis

Kaunas University of Technology, Faculty of Civil Engineering and Architecture, Modernization of Public Spaces in Lithuanian Cities

Our collaboration with Sciendo has significantly contributed to increased visibility and accessibility of our journal. The journal is indexed in new databases each year. It helps us to improve the quality better and faster.

Dr. Henrik Kalivoda

Editor of Ekológia

Life Sciences
incl. Agriculture

Medicine, Pharmacy, Public Health

It is my pleasure to work with Sciendo. They have substantially increased Radiology & Oncology visibility on the web and have helped us to enter the most important databases and reach a high Impact Factor. Their help has enabled us to grow faster and become a truly international journal.

Prof. Gregor Sersa
Editor-in-Chief, Radiology & Oncology

In 2014 the Verein zur Förderung der Wissenschaften in den Gesundheitsberufen (VFWG), a consortium of 25 universities from Austria, Germany and Switzerland, launched, together with Sciendo, the International Journal of Health Professions (IJHP). From its beginning with ISSN registration of the journal, implementation of the submission system Editorial Manger, upto the present day, everyday work with language editing and typesetting the journal gets comprehensive professional publishing solutions. We are very satisfied with Sciendo, the development of our journal and the growing interest of authors and readers.

Dr. Thomas Bucher
Editor-in-Chief, International Journal of Health Professions

I had the great pleasure to work with the representatives of Sciendo, who provided high quality assistance in all the steps of our journals development. The professional team of Sciendo had a significant contribution not only to creation of these two journals, but also to ensure their fast inclusion in prestigious databases, including Clarivate Analytics - Web of Science Core Collection. We are extremely satisfied with the collaboration with Sciendo, which has been proved successful so far, and we wish to continue this in the long term.

Prof. Theodora Benedek
Editor-in-Chief, Journal of Interdisciplinary Medicine and
Managing Editor, Journal of Cardiovascular Emergencies

Partnering with Sciendo has helped the Journal of Veterinary Research very appreciably. It has bettered our visibility, broadened our inclusion in databases, and raised our impact factor. Sciendo solidly supports the Journal attaining its overarching goal and we would not hesitate to recommend collaboration.

Prof. Beata Cuvelier
Editor-in-Chief, Journal of Veterinary Research

Musicology Today is the most significant journal concerning Musicology in Central and Eastern Europe. Sciendo has made it possible for Musicology Today to become more accessible online and placed it within reach of international audiences. Sciendo has fully fulfilled our expectations.

Prof. Sławomira Żerańska-Kominek
Editor-in-Chief, Musicology Today

The Journal of Ethnology and Folkloristics addresses international scholarly audience, primarily involved in research areas of ethnology, folkloristics, museology, cultural and social anthropology. Collaboration with Sciendo motivated us to become more disciplined in our editorial work and to become more attractive for our academic target groups by supporting our appearance in the Scopus database (as well as a number of other scientific indexes).

Prof. Art Leete
Editor-in-Chief, Journal of Ethnology and Folkloristics

Editing and publishing my book has been a complex enterprise. Thanks to the services of the Sciendo team, the production process was smooth and relaxed. The team was ready to answer all our needs and queries within very short periods of time. The final product was one of very good quality.

Prof. Edwin Seroussi
The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Co-editor of Borderlines: Essays on Mapping and the Logic of Place

Arts incl. Music, Architecture and Culture

Economics

Our long-lasting collaboration with Sciendo has helped to raise the level of scientific quality of our journal and increased its visibility among both readers and authors, especially those from abroad. Thanks to the professionalism and dedication of the De Gruyter Poland team, Comparative Economic Research Central and Eastern Europe is currently indexed in numerous databases. Our greatest common success is that our journal is included in the Web of Science Core Collection and Scopus.

Prof. Zofia Wysokińska
Editor-in-Chief, Comparative Economic Research

We have worked with Sciendo for a number of years now and our collaboration was a positive and productive experience. Our series, Studia UBB Sociologia and Studia UBB Oeconomica have been included in the Open Access programme implemented by De Gruyter in order to increase the journals' visibility and academic impact. In this respect, we have had a good communication with Sciendo and its local representative who proved himself to be a great customer support professional, acting as a contact point between us and Sciendo. Any question or concern we had along the way were answered promptly and effectively, which leads us to believe we will continue to work together, under the same positive circumstances.

Alina Vesa
Editor-in-Chief, Studia Universitatis Babes-Bolyai

The Journal of Human Kinetics has worked with Sciendo for over a decade. They have substantially increased our journal's visibility on the web and have helped us to enter the most important databases, reaching at the same time a high Impact Factor. Their help has enabled us to grow faster and become a truly international journal. Being satisfied with the quality of Sciendo's work, we have recommended it to several other periodicals in the field of Sport Sciences.

Prof. dr hab. Adam Zajac
Rector of the Academy of Physical Education in Katowice, Poland,
Editor-in-Chief, Journal of Human Kinetics

Education incl. Sport, Physical Education

Geography, Environmental Studies

*It is a pleasure for Miscellanea Geographica to collaborate with Sciendo. They have helped us to achieve our goals of improving the quality of our journal and meeting international standards. Services provided by Sciendo have resulted in our journal's entrance into many abstract databases (including Web of Science) and an increase in visibility on a global scale.*

Prof. Maciej Jędrusik

Editor-in-Chief, Miscellanea Geographica - Regional Studies on Development

The publishing of our journal 'European Countryside' with Sciendo has helped us a lot. Our journal is published in a prestigious publishing house together with similar journals. This supports the international character of our journal and its independency on national evaluation schemes. By such a way, we have got to various databases including Scopus and the Emerging Sources Citation Index (ESCI) much faster.

Prof. Antonín Vaishar

Executive Editor, European Countryside

We established the partnership with Sciendo in 2014 and have developed a close working relationship with its professional team. With the assistance of the team in marketing, distribution and editing, we have published 6 issues of our journal and look forward to continuing the collaboration in the coming years.

Prof. Sze-Wing Tang

Editor-in-Chief, Studies in Chinese Linguistics

*Our work with Sciendo has helped us to turn our journal from, to a certain extent, a parochial journal, into a truly international publication. Multicultural Shakespeare Translation, Appropriation and Performance has started to reach a worldwide readership. As the submissions testify, our readers and authors come from all over the world. Today's popularity of Multicultural Shakespeare is closely associated with our presence in the most significant databases and the increase of our Impact Factor. We consider our collaboration and partnership with Sciendo to be one of the most important events in the development of our journal.*

Prof. Krystyna Kujawińska-Courtney

Editor-in-Chief, Multicultural Shakespeare Translation, Appropriation and Performance

Language, Literature

Law, Public Administration

Our journal Administration has been in existence for over sixty years. Our association with Sciendo has enabled us to continue to evolve and to take the next steps in the development of the journal. The move to an online, open access system has increased our accessibility and visibility both nationally and internationally. We have also benefited from support we received in our successful application for Scopus recognition.

Joanna O’Riordan
Editor, Administration

History of the Baltic Journal of Law & Politics – one of the oldest solely electronic scholarly journals in the corresponding field in the region – is intrinsically related to Sciendo. The Journal has chosen Sciendo as the main partner in the contemporary publishing process from its first Volume in 2008 and has never changed or regretted that. From the very start, the people in Sciendo (then called Versita) were very professional and contributed considerably in making the initial steps in the then rather new field of a full-scale electronic publication of a scholarly journal. Later cooperation with Sciendo never ceased to be this way, helping to develop the Journal into the solid, modern and regionally well-known platform for disseminating scholarly ideas and achievements in the field of its coverage.

Tomas Berkmanas
Senior Editor-in-Chief, Baltic Journal of Law & Politics

Sciendo has been a reliable partner for our Baltic Journal of European Studies for years now and has greatly contributed to the journal's progress. Its expertise, hardworking and vision has guided our journal to the new heights and allowed us to attract audience all over the world. Sciendo are partners who make cooperation with them easy and successful.

Prof. Tanel Kerikmäe
Editor-in-Chief, Baltic Journal of European Studies

Political Science, Military Sciences

Management, Business, Finance

Sciendo has opened up the world of cutting edge digital technology to the 'Foundations of Management' journal. It has helped to stimulate the unlimited transmission of the knowledge of authors and readers. The Faculty of Management of the Warsaw University of Technology provides scientists, managers and PhD students from around the world with the keys to this semantic knowledge gate. We are very grateful to the international team of Sciendo for this distinction and for the accompanying wide stream of signals of interest and achievements.

Prof. Tadeusz Krupa

Editor-in-Chief, Foundations of Management

The collaboration with Sciendo publishing house ensured the international visibility and prestige of our journal 'Management & Marketing. Challenges for the knowledge society'. The active involvement of the Sciendo team helped us to obtain various international indexations, especially in the Web of Science.

Prof. Alina Mihaela Dima

Editor of Management & Marketing. Challenges for the Knowledge Society

Open Access is a natural step forward for the Swiss Journal of Sociology and we are very glad to have found in Sciendo an experienced Open Access publisher. The transition to Open Access helped the journal to get more visibility resulting through the indexation in the relevant A&I services.

Prof. Felix Bühlmann

Editor-in-Chief, Swiss Journal of Sociology

Sociology

We have worked with Sciendo for a number of years now and our collaboration has been a positive and productive experience. Our series, Studia UBB Sociologia and Studia UBB Oeconomica have been included in the Open Access programme implemented by De Gruyter in order to increase the journals' visibility and academic impact. In this respect, we have had a good communication with Sciendo and its local representative who proved himself to be a great customer support professional, acting as a contact point between us and Sciendo. Any questions or concerns we had along the way were answered promptly and effectively, which leads us to believe we will continue to work together, under the same positive circumstances.

Alina Vesa

Editor-in-Chief, Studia Universitatis Babes-Bolyai Sociologia

Editor-in-Chief, Studia Universitatis Babes-Bolyai Oeconomica

History

Cooperation with Sciendo means professional contact, substantive cooperation and satisfaction with the final result.

Prof. Arkadiusz Adamczyk

Jan Kochanowski University, Kielce. Author of the book "The Cross is our sign" Activities, political thought and martyrdom of Janos Esterhazy \(1901-1957\)

